Figure 4: Engaging with Patient Social Realities

Culture frames knowledge

Culture is protective
Traditional medicine & ceremony

Knowledge contextualization & exchange

Social and Economic Resource Disparities

Socioeconomic disadvantage
Family adversity & support
Family & limited resources
Personal & collective loss
Knowledge barriers
Effect of residential schools

Culture as Therapeutic

Accumulation of Adverse Life Experiences

Colonization